Hitler's Stolen Children

Ingrid von Oelhafen, Tim Tate

Hitler's Stolen Children is a powerful, first-person account of being at the heart of one of the Nazi's cruellest and most obscene experiments—the Lebensborn program to create a new Aryan master race. In 1942, when she was nine months old, Erika Matko was stolen from her family in St. Sauerbrunn in what was then Yugoslavia and transported to Germany to be "Germanized." She was chosen because, unlik...

Indians on Vacation

Thomas King

Meet Bird and Mimi in this brilliant new novel from one of Canada's foremost authors. Inspired by a handful of old postcards sent by Uncle Leroy nearly a hundred years earlier, Bird and Mimi attempt to trace Mimi's long-lost uncle and the family medicine bundle he took with him to Europe.

"I'm sweaty and sticky. My ears are still popping from the descent into Vaclav Havel. My sinuses ache. My stom...

1945

Ken Cuthbertson

It was a watershed year for Canada and the world. 1945 set Canada on a bold course into the future. A huge sense of relief marked the end of hostilities. Yet there was also fear and uncertainty about the perilous new world that was unfolding in the wake of the American decision to use the atomic bomb to bring the war in the Pacific to a dramatic halt.

On the eve of WWII, the Dominion of Canada was...

Rush to Danger

Ted Barris

Noted military historian Ted Barris once asked his father, Alex, "What did you do in the war?" What the former US Army medic then told his son forms the thrust of Barris's latest historic journey—an exploration of his father's wartime experiences as a medic leading up to the Battle of the Bulge in 1944–45, along with stories of other medics in combat throughout history.

Barris's research reveals...

The Hidden World of the Fox

Adele Brand

For thousands of years, human beings have been fascinated by the fox. Refusing to be domesticated, the fox has thrived at the margins of human activity. The astonishing intelligence and cunning that served them well in the ancient wildwood now helps them navigate concrete parking lots and railroad lines, as human settlements increasingly encroach on their habitat.

Adele Brand, a renowned British ma...

Untitled Marci Ien

Marci Ien

Joel Ien, Marci Ien's father and a celebrated teacher and professor, always started the school year by putting two numbers, say 1905 and 1942, separated by a dash, on the chalkboard. Then he would ask his students, "What do you think that dash means?" And his answer was this: The dash is your lifetime. All the years that come between the two dates are compressed into that dash. What will you do du...

Cujo

Curtis Joseph, Kirstie McLellan Day

The instant #1 national bestseller

Curtis Joseph, known affectionately to hockey fans around the world as Cujo, was an unlikely NHL superstar. The boy from Keswick, Ontario, didn't put on a pair of skates until most kids his age were already far along in organized hockey, and he was passed over by every team in the NHL draft. Despite an unorthodox start, he would go on to play eighteen seasons with...

My Life

Teemu Selanne, Ari Mennander

Teemu Selanne may have been anointed "The Finnish Flash," but his career was anything but fleeting. Few professional hockey players will ever approach the staying power or success that Selanne achieved in all facets of the sport, from helping Finland win four Olympic medals and two World Championship medals to finally capturing, in his words, the Holy Grail—the Stanley Cup—after fourteen seasons.
