Set in the Valley of the Ten Peaks, Moraine Lake in Banff National Park, Alberta, is one of Canada's most picturesque destinations. Seen here from the popular Rockpile Trail, the glacier-fed lake gleams a vibrant shade of turquoise—an effect created by sunlight reflecting on floating silt that has been produced by the grinding movement of the glacier. The colour of the lake peaks in intensity in l...

Toronto, Ontario, Canada's most populous city and one of the most multicultural cities in the world, is home to the iconic Gooderham Building. This wedge-shaped structure, also known as the Flatiron Building, was constructed in 1891. Set in the heart of Toronto's busy St. Lawrence Market District, this architectural gem is arguably the city's most photographed historic structure.
