I Love Leopard

Emma Bastow

Since Christian Dior first brought leopard print to the catwalk in 1947, it has earned a cult following. Popularized by everyone from 1940s screen sirens to pop goddesses and Instagram stars, the print has undergone numerous incarnations in the fashion world and has earned a reputation for being daring, bold, and rebellious. This compelling, full-color illustrated book celebrates all things leopard...

Fasten Your Seat Belts

Lawrence J. Quirk

With a career spanning six decades and more than eighty films, Bette Davis is synonymous with Hollywood legend. From her incandescent performance as Margo Channing in All About Eve, to her terrifying, psychopathic Jane Hudson in What Ever Happened to Baby Jane?, Davis generated electricity wherever she appeared, whatever she did—and not just on the silver screen. Her personal life was as passionat...

BRAVE

Rose McGowan

Rose McGowan was born in one cult and came of age in another, more visible cult: Hollywood.

Born and raised in the Italian chapter of the Children of God, Rose escaped, moved to the States, and then ran away at thirteen. She lived a transient punk lifestyle on and off the streets until she was "discovered" in Los Angeles and overnight became one of Hollywood's most desired actresses.

In a strange wo...
