A cartoon illustration of a volcanic eruption. A large volcano in the center is erupting with a massive plume of red and orange smoke or ash that fills the upper half of the frame. Several children are shown in various states of shock and panic. One boy with curly hair is flying through the air in the upper right. A girl with blonde hair and a blue cap is on the left, looking up. A boy with glasses is on the right, also looking up. A girl with curly brown hair is in the foreground, crouching and looking up with a shocked expression. The background shows a blue sky and some green palm trees.
